Description

Set in one of Belgrade's most prestigious residential areas, this elegant detached house in Dedinje offers privacy, generous space and an exceptional location. Arranged over three levels, the house features a classic salon-style layout with nine rooms, including four bedrooms, with some rooms interconnected in a traditional layout. The property is in very good overall condition, retaining the character and charm of a traditional residence. The kitchen and bathrooms have been tastefully renovated, providing modern comfort while preserving the home's original character. The property includes three bathrooms, a guest toilet, and a basement with a garage, additional kitchen and versatile room. A distinctive residence combining prime location, privacy, generous outdoor space and timeless character.
